

Disciplinary Appeals Process Guidelines

1. Purpose

This document describes the process by which a student found responsible for a Code of Conduct violation may appeal the finding and/or sanction.

2. Grounds for Appeal

Appeals are only accepted on the following grounds:

- Procedural error that substantially affected the outcome of the hearing
- New and material evidence unavailable at the time of the hearing
- The sanction imposed is disproportionate to the severity of the violation
- Bias or conflict of interest by a hearing board member

3. Filing Timeline

Appeals must be submitted in writing to the Dean of Students within 10 business days of receiving the written outcome letter. Late appeals will only be considered if the student can demonstrate that the delay was caused by circumstances beyond their control.

4. Appeals Review

The Dean of Students (or designee) reviews the appeal and the complete case file. The Dean may: affirm the original decision; modify the sanction; remand the case to a new hearing board; or overturn the finding. A written decision is issued within 20 business days.

The Dean's decision is final except in cases involving expulsion, which may be further appealed to the University Provost within 5 business days.
