

Financial Aid Appeals Process

1. Purpose

This document describes the process by which students may appeal a financial aid suspension, scholarship revocation, or financial aid eligibility determination.

2. Grounds for Appeal

- Serious illness or injury of the student during the affected semester
- Death or medical crisis of an immediate family member
- Involuntary call to active military duty
- Natural disaster or other circumstances beyond the student's control
- Documented disability not previously accommodated

3. Appeal Submission

Appeals must be submitted to the Financial Aid Office within 30 days of the suspension or adverse determination. Required documentation includes: completed SAP Appeal Form, personal written statement, supporting documentation, and an Academic Plan signed by the student's academic advisor.

4. Review and Outcome

The Financial Aid Appeals Committee reviews appeals within 15 business days. If approved, the student is placed on Financial Aid Probation with specific performance benchmarks (e.g., achieve a 2.5 GPA next semester). If the appeal is denied, the student may re-apply for aid in a subsequent semester after self-financing enrollment and restoring SAP compliance.
