

Federal Work-Study Program Policy

1. Program Overview

The Federal Work-Study (FWS) program provides part-time employment to undergraduate and graduate students who demonstrate financial need, allowing them to earn money to help pay for educational expenses.

2. Eligibility

Students must have a demonstrated financial need as calculated by the FAFSA, be enrolled at least half-time, and be maintaining SAP. Work-Study awards are made as part of the financial aid package.

3. Work Hours and Earnings

Students may work a maximum of 20 hours per week during the academic semester. Work-Study wages are paid bi-weekly directly to the student and are not credited to the student's account. Earnings are subject to federal and state income tax. Students must not exceed their Work-Study award amount during an academic year.

4. Job Placement

Available Work-Study positions are posted on the university's student employment portal. Students apply directly for positions and are hired by the employing department. Positions are available both on campus and with approved off-campus non-profit community service organizations.
